HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Mayor McCarthy Fined.

As was stated in the Gazette, Mr. Carlton McCarthy, Mayor of Richmond was fined $20 in Justice Crutchfield's Police Court yesterday morning upon a charge of contempt. Mr. Hill Montague, attorney for the Mayor, noted an appeal to the Hustings Court, but Attorney Harry Smith, who represented J. D. Seckelman, the newspaper man who charges that Mayor McCarthy gave him the lie direct in court Thursday morning, informed the court that there could not be, in his opinion, any appeal from one court to another upon a contempt charge.

The Mayor's counsel made a strong plea for acquittal. He said it would cast a reflection upon the city of Richmond for the newspapers of the country to print that the chief executive of Richmond had been fined in the court.

"Which is the worse," interrupted Attorney Smith, "to lessen the dignity of the Mayor or lessen the dignity of the court?"

"I will have the rough element up before me in a few minutes," said the Court. "If I let Mayor McCarthy go unpunished, then those lower offenders will think me unfair. I've never let one go yet upon this offense. It is my custom to fine a contempt prisoner on the spot, and if he hasn't got the money to pay the fine I send him to jail. There is no excuse for it. If I consulted my personal feelings I would dismiss this case. However, I cannot uphold even the Mayor in his conduct. I can make no exception. I fine the Mayor $20."

Attorney Montague in his speech said that for years the News Leader, the paper which Seckelman represents, has been exasperating the Mayor.

"Well, then," broke in Attorney Smith, "why doesn't the Mayor call Alfred Williams, editor of the paper, a liar?"

"I've called him a liar a hundred times in public," interrupted the Mayor, who was on the stand.

"I'll bet you never called Mr. Williams a liar to his face," said Mr. Smith.

The Mayor made no reply to this remark.

Justice Crutchfield will look up the law in the matter and decide whether or not the case can be appealed to a higher court.

Attorney Smith, when seen yesterday afternoon, had looked up the law in regard to whether or not the Mayor can appeal from yesterday's fine, and is of the opinion that he can.

"At the time," said Attorney Smith, "there was a question in my mind as to whether an appeal could be taken, but, after consulting authority, I believe an appeal lies."

Arrest of a Noted Criminal.

Central office detectives of New York arrested last night a man for whom they declare the police of the world have been searching for more than four years. The prisoner, who was picked up on the street by a mere chance, is declared to be James Manes, formerly an American bookmaker, who is wanted in connection with the famous Bank of Liverpool robbery of November 22, 1901, in which the English institution, through forgery and conspiracy, was defrauded of more than $800,000. Subsequently $380,000 of this amount was recovered from the conspirators, the bank having sustained a net loss of more than $400,000. Manes is 55 years old and walks as though a victim of locomotor ataxia. His condition, the police declare, aided them in identifying him.

In the history of the crimes of the world the conspiracy to rob the Bank of Liverpool will always hold the distinction of being one of the most ingenious and conscienceless ever planned. The entire scheme turned upon the weakness of a bank clerk, who, while drawing a salary of $750 a year, became a victim of the betting craze and played the races. His accomplices were sporting men, several bookmakers and a prizefighter. Not only did the bank clerk play into their hands through his losses at the racetracks, but he was deprived of the occasional big winnings he made through some pretense. The clerk forged continually the name of one of the bank's depositors until finally more than $800,000 had been taken out of the institution and turned over to the coterie of racetrack men. Finally, without having profited a penny, he went to the penitentiary for 10 years, a sentence he is now serving with hard labor. The bank clerk was a young fellow named Thomas P. Goudie. Some of his associates were arrested and sentenced to the penitentiary, others escaped and one committed suicide.

During the trial of Goudie a clerk employed by the bookmaker—Marks—told the jury a story to show how easily the accused man was swindled. One day he had wagered heavily on a race, intrusting his commission to Marks. The horse won and Goudie was entitled to $125,000 on the deal. That night the bookmaker sent a telegram to Goudie saying he had been ill and was not in business at the racetrack that day.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and affected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bott'e free.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas common "remedies" made with mercury merely drive them out and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real cure, not a delusion. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Charged with Murder.

Thomas Walley was arrested yesterday at Downingtown, Pa., charged with the shooting Thursday night of Joseph B. Carpenter and Lizzie Carpenter, his wife. Carpenter was killed almost instantly, and his wife is in a serious condition at a hospital. Testimony at the coroner's inquest yesterday was to the effect that the woman had spent the evening at a cider shop near her home at Entrekiuville. Carpenter went to the place for the purpose of taking his wife home. Walley, who was there, interposed, and a quarrel resulted. Walley first shot Mrs. Carpenter in the side, and then turned the weapon upon her husband. Walley fled, but was located at Downingtown yesterday. Carpenter and Walley came to Coatesville together about four years ago, and Carpenter married Lizzie Faust. It is said that he was jealous of Walley.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. SATURDAY EVENING. JAN. 27, 1906.

STRONG republican opposition to both the statehood and the Philippine tariff bills has developed in the Senate and prediction is made that neither measure can pass that body at this session. How much of the opposition is due to antagonism to the administration is not yet apparent. The democrats of the Senate are preparing, if the Philippine tariff bill is taken up, to insist on a reopening of the whole tariff question. They very naturally say if there is to be tariff revision for the benefit of the Filipinos it might be as well to try revision for the benefit of the people of the United States. Republican leaders of course are averse to any general tariff discussion, and, the democrats believe, will let the bill die in committee rather than precipitate the threatened prolonged partisan debate, during which it would be shown how the masses are being wronged by the operation of unjust tariff laws.

A BILL has been introduced in the House of Delegates which provides that the registered voters of each city shall elect trustees for each school district of the city, whose term of office shall be for two years. This is a pernicious measure and should be defeated. It is a difficult matter now to get suitable men to serve as school trustees, but if such men have to seek elections before the people, very few of them indeed would enter the list and the school boards would eventually be composed of men that have axes to grind.

ONE OF the oddest uses to which an injunction was ever put is the restraint of the editor of the Atlanta News from advocating his senatorial candidacy in the paper he edits. The temporary injunction was procured by the general manager, who is trying to get rid of the editor on the ground that his indorsement of Thomas E. Watson and his praise of President Roosevelt have injured the status of the paper.

AS STATED in yesterday's Gazette the House committee on schools and colleges has unanimously recommended the abolition of school inspectors. This is good and the bill should be passed at once. These five school "inspectors" who draw salaries of $2,500 each are the most useless pieces of furniture that ever incumbered the State.

THE superintendent of the Naval Academy declares his belief that half the first class men at Annapolis will have to be tried by court martial under a strict construction of the anti-hazing laws. Then let them be tried and if found guilty let them be dismissed at once.

A UNIONIST member of Parliament in London has resigned his seat in favor of former Premier Balfour, but the latter cannot be elected until after Parliament meets, so he will not be present at the opening. Such courtesies are not common among American politicans.

RICHMOND'S "live wire" Mayor does not seem able to govern himself; consequently he is unfit to govern others.

Washington, Jan. 27.

On Tuesday the Hepburn railroad rate bill will be presented to the House, a measure which has received a unanimous report from the committee on interstate and foreign commerce and which will, it is expected, pass the House without a dissenting vote. Monday will be devoted to District of Columbia business, and the rest of the week will be given up to the railroad rate "debate." At the Senate end of the Capitol outside of the speeches on the floor, ostensibly on the pure food and ship subsidy bill, but whose subjects really range from railroad rate regulations to international diplomacy, the most important work next week will be done in committee. Senator Hepburn will try on Monday to secure an arrangement to have a vote on the pure food bill in the near future and Senator Gallinger will again ask for similar action on his merchant marine subsidy measure. Another claimant for attention will make its appearance on Monday in the shape of the statehood bill. It is known that it will have a long and hard road to travel. The Isle of Pines treaty will be discussed in executive session during the week.

Official announcement was made at the Navy Department today of the dismissal from the Naval Academy for hazing of Midshipman Chester A. A. Bloebaum, of Missouri. He was appointed to the Naval Academy by Representative Champ Clark, who recently made a speech in the House severely criticising the authorities for permitting hazing.

Seven thousand invitations have been sent out for the wedding of Miss Alice Roosevelt. Three thousand have been sent to people outside of the United States. About one thousand have been sent to people in this city.

Miss Alice Roosevelt left Washington this morning for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of honor at a formal dinner tonight at the Bellevue Stratford given by Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier. Her fiance, Mr. Longworth, will go on a later train. He is to be entertained at the same time and place at a dinner in honor of Ambassador Griscom given by Mr. Clothier.

Governor George B. Carter, of the territory of Hawaii, is seriously ill, according to a cablegram received here today.

It was announced at the White House this morning that Secretary Loeb did not expect to have any correspondence with District Attorney Jerome relating to the "write up" of the President in "Pads and Fancies" which, it was developed at the Hapgood libel trial, were corrected at the President's office. "I may have corrected the proofs," said Secretary Loeb, "but just now I do not remember having done so. But if I did there would be nothing remarkable about it for great numbers of articles in proof are sent to the White House, and I run over them to see if there are any inacuracies, and if any are found, promptly strike them out. This was in 1903, remember, long before any one had a hint of the real character of the publication. I may have had some correspondence with Justice Deuel about the matter. It seems to me that I had. Justice Deuel is an old personal friend of mine and would have been the last man whom I would have suspected of connection with a scandalous publication of any sort. As to the pictures that were inserted in the book, they come under the same category as the articles. Almost any one wishing to illustrate an article about the President can secure photographs here or can learn where he can get them.

Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, chairman of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, today presented to the House the Hepburn railroad rate bill, together with the committee's unanimous report, urging its passage. The report says that something has been borrowed from nearly all of the many bills introduced on the subject, and that many of the features of the Esch-Townsend bill, which passed the House last year, have been preserved.

Secretary of State Root gave a luncheon today at the New Willard in honor of the members of the Imperial Chinese Commission in this country to investigate industrial conditions.

The Army and Navy Journal, in its issue today, suggests that the only practicable solution of the present hazing situation at the Naval Academy is for the midshipmen who have given offense to get together, confess their sins and throw themselves on the mercy of the President.

In acknowledging that he made a mistake in including in the monetary agreement with Panama an agreement to make the coins of that Republic legal tender within the canal zone, Secretary Taft has taken the edge off of the criticism in the Senate with regard to that agreement.

Gustav Stadie, of Fourth avenue and 229th street, New York, who was arrested at the White House Thursday afternoon, where he had gone to show the President the model of an ice boat with which he said he could reach the north pole, died this morning at the Government Hospital for the Insane. The physicians assign acute mania as the cause of death.

State Senator Noel, of Lee county, was here yesterday seeking to be the successor of Col. Brown Allen as marshal of the Western district of Virginia. Col. Allen maintains that he will be reappointed, but it is said that Col. Slemp wants to see Mr. Noel get the place.

The Navy Department was informed by cable this morning that tranquility had been established at all the customs ports of the island of Santo Domingo and that all was quiet once again throughout the little republic. The revolutionary general who has been operating against General Sanchez, commanding the government forces, has surrendered and the last vestage of the insurrection has now disappeared.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 27.

SENATE.

HOUSE.

Immediately upon convening today, the House proceeded to a record vote on the amendment to the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, exempting alien laborers in the Isthmus of Panama, from the provisions of the eight hour work day law.

The amendment was adopted, 120 to 108, and the bill was then passed, without further opposition.

Private pension bills to the number of 262 were then considered. Three of these bills were laid on the table, as the proposed beneficiaries have died since the committee favorably passed upon their claims

Capt. John N. Opie Dead.

Capt. John N. Opie, former member of the State Senate, died at Staunton yesterday morning after a severe illness extending over several months. At the beginning of the civil war Captain Opie belonged to the West Augusta Guards of Staunton, a part of the Fifth Virginia Regiment, until after the first battle of Manassas, at which time he was transferred to the cavalry service, and entered Captain Baylor's company. Later he commanded a company of cavalry reserves which was with General Early when he defeated General Hunter at Lynchburg and followed him beyond Salem. Many old soldiers will remember the heavy scrimmage near the top of the Blue Ridge before arriving at Salem. Captain Opie was made commander of this company at the battle of Piedmont, where William A. Jones was killed, on June 5, 1864. Captain Opie was a member of the State Senate for several terms, and was defeated for the State Senate in the last democratic primary by ex-Lieut.-Gov. Edward Echols. After the war Captain Opie studied law and became a member of the Staunton bar, and was a leading politician. He was an author, one of his most popular books being "A Rebel Cavalryman."

Sealed Verdict.

New York, Jan. 27.—A sealed verdict was returned this morning by the jury in the suit of the Liverpool & London & Globe insurance company to recover $7,000 alleged to have been overpaid to Mrs. Susan Day Parker, for supplies and furnishings of the yacht Scythian, which was burned in 1901 on her way from Whitestone, L. I., to Boston. Judge Wheeler opened the verdict and read the finding of the jury which was in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1,663,44. The jury also found that Mrs Parker, was in no way to blame for the loss of the yacht. During the trial of the case a sensation was caused when Captain Cardiff, who was in command of the Scythian on the Boston trip, testified that he set fire to the yacht at the request of Dr. Parker, husband of the defendant, who agreed to pay him $5,000 for doing so.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Anderson resolution looking to the naming of four committees to make investigation of all the public educational institutions precipitated the first real debate in the Senate today.

The committee recommended that the resolution be so amended that only two of the joint committees should be absent from the general assembly at any one time, so that only four senators would be away from the work of the legislature.

Senator Machen offered an amendment requiring the committees to report to the next legislature, which was defeated, and the resolution was then lost on an aye and nay vote.

A bill creating a new judicial circuit to be known as the Twenty-fifth composed of the counties of Rockingham, Madison and Greene, was presented by Senator Keezell. The Sixthteenth to be composed of Loudoun, Prince William, Fairfax and Alexandria city; Eighteenth, to be composed of the counties of Augusta and Rockbridge, and creates the Twenty-fifth, composed of the counties above named.

The following bills were introduced.

Mr. Royall's bill to amend section 437 of the code in relation to the assessment of lands and lots so that it shall apply to standing timber and to make the same retrospective as to certain assessments, caused much discussion. It was ordered to its third reading and engrossment. The measure, which emanates from the southwest aims to have the commissioners, in assessing realty, specify separately the value of the realty, the timbers and the minerals. It means increased revenues in the way of taxes for the State.

By Mr. Gaines: Providing for proper labeling of all canned goods, specifying kind of goods contained in said cans and the year of canning.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Midshipman's Trial.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 27.—It is the general belief here by naval officers and others that Midshipman Meriwether, of Louisiana, who was recently tried by court martial on the charge of hazing, has been convicted of the charge.

George H. Melvin, a midshipman, third class, of Illinois, was arraigned before the naval court martial this morning, charged with the hazing of five midshipmen of the fourth class, and also of using abusive language to a "plebe."

Owing to a tangle on a legal point raised by counsel for the accused, the court adjourned until Monday.

Claude Banks Mayo, of Mississippi, a member of the graduating class has been acquitted of hazing, but Chester A. A. Bloebaum, or Missouri, third class, was convicted of the same charge, and was today dismissed from the academy. Both of the midshipmen were tried before the general court martial a few days ago. The evidence in the case of Mayo showed that he had never hazed before, because he believed the practice inconsistent with the objects of the Young Men's Christian Association, of which he was an active member and it was also brought out that the incident for which he faced the court resulted from a conversation with a commissioned officer, which a number of upper classmen interpreted to mean that they should discipline the fourth classmen for laughing in ranks, by a little hazing.

In the case of Bloebaum, hazing of a brutal nature was discovered and it was also testified that he used abusive language to one of his victims. The court consumed scarcely five minutes in framing a verdict of guilty, against Bloebaum.

Burning of a Hotel.

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 27.—By the burning early this morning of the Richardson House, a four story structure of sixty rooms, located on the corner of Dutton and Middlesex streets, opposite the Boston & Maine station, it is believed that half a dozen lives were lost, and a score or more persons injured. Up to nine o'clock three bodies had been taken from the ruins, and it was thought that others would be found under the charred embers as the day wore on. There was but one fire escape and this could not be reached by all of the occupants. Some jumped into nets and some slid down ropes improvised from bed clothing and other material. Others jumped from the lower windows escaping serious injury. The loss on the hotel is estimated at $75,000.

Up to one o'clock this afternoon no more bodies had been found in the ruins and the conclusion has been about reached that but three lives were lost in the conflagration.

Captain of Steamer Sentenced.

New York, Jan. 27.—Captain William van Schaick, who was in charge of the steamer General Slocum when she was burned in the East River, with the loss of one thousand lives, was found guilty of one of the charges brought against him as the result of this horrible accident, in the United State court today. He was found guilty on the third charge, which alleged failure to maintain proper fire drill aboard the boat and proper supervision of the apparatus aboard for that purpose. Judge Thomas immediately sentenced Captain van Schaick to serve ten years in Sing Sing at hard labor. This is the only conviction resulting from the Slocum disaster so far.

New York Stock Market.

Nrw York, Jan. 27.—Although only about 25,000 shares of Reading were traded in during the first hour, that stock was the most prominent feature of the market, declining to 159¾ against 152¾ at the opening. This drop in a highly speculative issue was reflected by sympathetic liquidation in several other issues.

Hunter in Jail.

The case of John P. Hunter, now in jail at Norfolk, charged with having married Miss Nellie Green in Norfolk last August when he had an alleged living wife in Alexandria, has been indefinitely postponed because of the fact that Hunter is now quarantined in jail. Smallpox broke out in the Norfolk jail some time ago, but new prisoners committed after this were sent to a "clean" part of the building.

Both wives of the prisoner are now determined to prosecute him, and both will go to Norfolk as witnesses against the prisoner when the case is called. The defense will object to Mrs. Hunter No. 1 testifying, on the ground that a wife cannot testify against her husband. Mrs. Hunter No. 2, who became the wife of Hunter as Miss Nellie Green, is now living with her parents in Newport News.

Hunter was arrested in Roanoke, Va., and taken to Norfolk for trial. He has been in jail there ever since.

Mrs. Hunter, living in this city, has sent to the Norfolk authorities what purports to be a certified copy of the license secured at the time when she and Hunter were married in this city several years ago. Rev. Mr. Jeffers, the minister who was named by Mrs. Hunter No. 1 as having married Hunter and herself, has sent a letter to the Norfolk officials saying that he thinks he recalls having performed the ceremony in question, but stating that he has no personal record of the marriage because he received no fee for his services.

Occoquan and Coan River.

The chief engineer of the army has made a favorable report to Congress regarding the opening up and improvement of the outer bar of Occoquan creek. This creek is a tributary of the Potomac which it enters about twenty miles below this city. The creek, with its tributary, Bull Run, form the boundary line between Fairfax and Prince William counties, and is about six miles in length from its mouth at High Point to the town of Occoquan, which is located at the head of navigation.

An unfavorable report has been made concerning further improvement in Coan river, Northumberland. The improvement desired there was the dredging of a channel 100 feet wide and ten feet deep in the upper portion of the river. The cost of this work would be about $48,000, with about $2,000 for annual maintenance. In the opinion of the government authorities and the engineers, who made the preliminary survey, the commercial interests of the section would not warrant such a large outlay.

THE CURTIN MURDER CASE.

Several witnesses were examined in the Police Court yesterday afternoon in connection with the Curtin murder mystery after the Gazette's report closed. The examination resulted in the arrest of two more young men—Leroy Beach, jr., and James Gorman—both of whom had been witnesses in the early part of the day. The two young men were locked up in separate cells and orders issued to allow no one to talk with them except their attorneys, should they procure counsel. This action was taken in order to place them on the stand again this morning

Gorman had testified that he did not know Curtin and was not in the Tenderloin section Saturday night, December 23.

Harry Beach, a brother of Leroy Beach, gave similar testimony, and stated that he and Gorman had been together early in the evening, but had separated, and he had gone home about 10:30 o'clock.

Policeman Lyles stated that he had seen both Gorman and Harry Beach going toward Lee street after midnight that night.

As was stated in the Gazette, Harry Beach was called back to the stand and asked if Leroy Beach had held any conversation with him on the subject of his testimony just before he took the stand the first time. He admitted that his brother had spoken to him, and said that a policeman was trying to overhear what was said, but swore that he did not remember the conversation.

After court adjourned for the day it was stated that when Beach was locked up he was under the influence of liquor, and made a significant remark to the effect that he would tell all that he knew if they put him on the stand again.

The result of yesterday's investigation warrants the belief that the authorities are gradually drawing a net which will sooner or later land the parties guilty of the murder of Curtin, the impression being general that the unfortunate man was lured to the river front where he was killed (presumably on an ark) and his body mutilated and placed where found.

At ten o'clock this morning, when the examination of the case was resumed, the Police Court room was densely packed, spectators standing in the windows in the western end of the room. The developments of yesterday made it apparent that startling details of the murder would be divulged today. When the court was called to order necks were craned and spectators stood on tip-toe listening breathlessly to every word spoken by witnesses.

Bessie Carter was the first witness called. She was living on north Lee street at the time of the murder; saw Curtin in her house that night. Chas. Robey was one of the men with the deceased. Witness knew nothing of a row on north Lee street that night. Curtin's body had been found before she left Alexandria for Washington. Knew Steve Davis; he came to her house occasionally. Never saw Davis the Sunday morning following the murder; saw him on another occasion, however, three weeks ago. Others were along at the time. Had gone to Will Wade's saloon. Never saw Davis with a watch, blackjack, knife or metal knuckles Robey and Davis went with witness to Wade's. Witness had left Alexandria because a man she knew had threatened her with bodily harm. Did not see Gorman on the night of Curtin's disappearance.

Leroy Beach then took the stand. He was represented by Messrs. C. C. Carlin and W. E. Fendall. Witness said Houston Walker went to Washington with him on Saturday night, December 23. Came home about 11 o'clock; went to Jos. Drew's and Patterson's saloons; later went to a house on north Lee street; left the house at 12:15 o'clock and entered another; did not notice who were in the places; went out when police whistle was sounded; heard Meeks and Ratcliffe quarreling and went to Meeks's assistance; did not recollect saying yesterday when on the stand that James Gorman was present at the row; had, however, been told later that Gorman was there; never saw George Curtin that night; denied telling James Wood anything yesterday, and did not remember saying anything to his (witness's) brother; acknowledged he went to a house on north Lee street after the body of Curtin was found to get a woman to prove an alibi for him, the woman to say she saw him start for his home. Witness asserted that he went home and not to his ark; positively denied that he went east of Lee street on the night of Curtin's disappearance. Saw fight between Massey and Walker, two young men, at the ark Sunday morning, Dec. 24, and separatted them; did not know who was present at the time of the fight or what caused it. During Beach's testimony his attention was called several times to certain variations from his depositions yesterday. His counsel stated that he had been drinking yesterday and realized that he had been rude while on the stand which would not have been the case had he been in his normal condition.

Walker said he went to Washington with Beach on the night of December 23, and upon returning went to Drew's and Patterson's saloons; probably returned between 8 and 9 o'clock.

Walker said he had lived in Alexandria sixteen years, but does not go to Lee street often; was in Annie Fisher's house and Guy Wood got the key to the ark from Leroy Beach. He and Wood then went to the ark to go to sleep; said that Beach did not send them for whisky; no one came aboard the ark until Sunday morning, when Harry Massey arrived. Walker said he went home between 2 and 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He said he did not see Curtin, Meeks or Foster that Saturday night.

Elmer Nightingill said he saw Curtin at the Tontine at 12 o'clock. The only other man he recognized in there was John Ennis. When he left the Tontine he went up town and finally went to Wash Jackson's hotel and went to bed.

Joseph Drew identified a picture as that of Wm. J. McCaffrey, better known as "Lucky." He said McCaffrey is now in Montreal, Canada.

Wm. Dudley, a brother-in-law of Curtin, said he was with him in the Tontine. When they left Curtin, Foster, Meeks and another man went toward Lee street and witness and several others went up town. He said he knew "Lucky" McCaffrey and he was not in the crowd. In reply to questions he said that Curtin wore a light Stetson hat and a brownish suit of clothes.

Walter Brown was then called. He said he was in Richmond Christmas Eve. Did not know George Curtin. He was asked if he had said that the City Council should offer a reward and said that he had, but could not recollect to whom.

Charles H. Robey said he didn't see Curtin that night; and worked until 1 a. m. and went home.

Bessie Carter was called in and identified Robey as having been in her house between 11 and 11.30. Robey said she was mistaken and he could prove his whereabouts by the electric railway train sheet and the conductor of the train. He admitted that he was in Alexandria from 10:13 until 11:50, but was with his train.

Capt. H. A. Simmons saw three men standing under the ice chute in front of Reardon's office between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night, but couldn't recognize them.

Geo. Leonard, who is employed at the gas works, said Otto Hicks told him that a young man told him that Willie Mankin had said that he was standing within 20 feet of the man who cut Curtin, but that he would hang before he would tell it.

Otto Hicks said he did not see Curtin on December 23. He said that "The" Sutton had made the remark which Leonard had repeated, except that Mankin had used the words, "cut with a hatchet.

Sam Hennion was called, but the officers reported that he was too drunk to get up the steps.

William Roberts said he was in a house on Princess street that Saturday night with Jim Fegan, Howard Hardy and Fegan's cousin, but did not see Curtin. When they came out there was a row among some men. He recognized the voice of Leroy Beach; was too far away to recognize their faces.

George Wood claimed that he went home about 6:30 the Saturday night before Christmas and did not come out again that night. He said he did not see his brother Guy Wood that night. He left home about noon and went to the ark. Harry Massie was the only person he saw there. He was positive that he was not in the Tontine Saturday night.

It had been learned at this point that Charles Robey was relieved at 8:30 Saturday night and he was again called. He said his testimony was based upon a telephone message from the dispatcher in Washington and the dispatcher had evidently made a mistake. He was positive, however, that he was not on Lee street that night.

Alpheus Robey said he was in the Tontine the evening of December 23 and left about 1:30 in the morning. He named a number of people who were in there, but didn't see Leroy Beach among them; said he played cards that night with Geo. Wood.

Wood was called and was identified by Robey as the man he had played cards with. Wood still stuck to his story that he was at home that night. Robey named the men who were in the game. When he left the Tontine, he said, he went home.

Walter Brown was recalled. He said he had talked with Joe Mills about the Curtin case; Mills had told him that Fannie Kimball put Osborne and Ryan out of her house; couldn't remember whether Mills had said she put Curtin out; said he didn't think Mills mentioned the date.

Hylus Osborne, of 1820 Gales street, Washington, took the stand. He said he had been with Curtin early on the morning of December 23 in the "little brick." Jack Ryan, he said, was with them. He said that the last time he saw Curtin was when he left him on the street.

Joe Mills was then called. He said he thought he saw Curtin in Fannie Kimball's Sunday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock with Osborne and Ryan. Fannie put them all out shortly before 3 o'clock and he went home. He said he went to the ark Sunday morning. "Babe Mills and Harry Massie, his nephews, had a row on the ark that morning.

Fannie Kimball was asked what night Curtin, Osborne and Ryan were put out of her house. She said it was on Friday night and Joe Mills was there Saturday night.

Mills said he is never in town Friday night and has not been since last August. He was positive that it was Saturday night that he saw the three men.

John Kersey testified that he was with Officer Garvey when the latter swept some snow from the end of Leroy Beach's ark and there was a large spot of blood.

Court then recessed until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

When court reconvened at 2 o'clock Ollie Sykes, who lived at 314 north Lee street, Fannie Kimball's house, at the time of the murder, was called. She said that Curtin, Osborne and Ryan were in the house Friday night, but Joe Mills was not there and she could not recollect having had a row with Mills.

Mills had testified that Ollie Sykes had hit him in the face with a beer bottle Saturday night. She admitted that she was drinking heavily throughout the holidays.

Fannie Kimball was recalled by Mr. Brent. She said the only men that she could remember being in her house Saturday night were Eddie Padgett and Joe Mills. A number of men came to the door but she refused to allow them to enter.

Ada Smith was the next witness. She said she knew Geo. Curtin and saw him in Fannie Kimball's house on Friday night with Jack Ryan and Hylus Osbourne, but did not see him there Saturday night. She said Joe Mills was there Saturday night. She has not seen Meeks and Foster there on Saturday night.

The next witness was Jack Ryan. He said he knew Curtin and saw him on Lee street Friday, Dec. 22, but did not see him on Saturday. He and Osbourne met Curtin who was alone. They went in the "little brick" and then went to Fannie Kimball's. He said he was drinking and could not recollect when he left Curtin. He went to the gas house with Osburne and Fegan and stayed there some time. He said he couldn't recollect whether they left Curtin in the woman's house or not. He was unable to recollect many of his movements. When questioned about Saturday he said he was drunk all day, but was not on Lee street. He testified that he ate breakfast at Joe Monroe's house Sunday morning and denied that he had had breakfast in the cook shop in the market building with Osbourne.

Mrs. Cook, who conducts the eating house in the market building, was called to confront the two men. She said Ryan and another man had eaten breakfast in her place Sunday morning. She could not identify Osbourne. Ryan was questioned further and said that the man with him Sunday morning must have been a fellow named Mitchell, better known as "Mitch," from Richmond.

Mr. Brent asked Ryan how he was dressed. He described his clothing and said that he did not wear an overcoat.

Harry Massie was recalled. He said he was in Fanny Kimball's the Sunday night before Christmas; was drunk and went to bed early in the evening. On Saturday night he said he was playing cards at the Tontine and George Wood was there at one time. He didn't see Beach and Walker there that night. He said he went to Lee street about 12:30 o'clock. He heard there was a row on Lee street and went there but saw no one on the street; went back to the Tontine and then went home. He said he did not see Curtin, Meeks or Foster in the Tontine Saturday night. He could not recollect who told him that there was a row on Lee street.

Roy Warren, a brother-in-law of Leroy Beach, was then called. He stated that he let Beach in the house at one o'clock Sunday morning. Beach was apparently not drunk. He could not say that Beach did not leave the house again that night but thought he would have heard him if he had.

James Fegan was recalled. He said he saw Ryan and Osborne at the gas house between 4 and 5 o'clock Sunday morning. They went home with him and stayed until 10 o'clock.

Sam Hennion was brought in, but he was not in condition to testify and he was locked up until Monday.

Mrs. Curtin was then called. Her husband left home Saturday evening early. He had a large roll of money from which he gave her $2.

The Gazette's report closed at 3:45 o'clock.

[In the Gazette's report of the examination yesterday it was stated that Ernest Recker testified to seeing Curtin sitting on a step on north Lee street Saturday night, December 23, with Meeks and Foster standing nearby. This is now denied, it being asserted that the witness did not recognize the man with Curtin.]

Potomac Lodge.

As had been anticipated, the meeting last night of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows was especially interesting. Grand Master Norman Ashby, of Culpeper, and Grand High Priest W. I. Brown, of the District of Columbia.

The third degree was conferred in an impressive manner upon four candidates.

About ten o'clock the lodge adjourned to the room on the lower floor where the Daughters of Rebecca had prepared a sumptuous repast. Noble Grand Andrew Hall presided.

After discussion of the repast short speeches were made by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, Grand Master Ashby and Mr. Robert W. Arnold, of Sarepta Lodge. Mrs. J. H. Mansfield, Noble Grand of Rebecca Lodge, also made some appropriate remarks concerning that organization.

There was some vocal music during the evening, which was enjoyed by all present.

Potomac Lodge is one of Alexandria's oldest and most honored institutions. It is now in the sere and yellow leaf, but seems to become stronger with its years. It has a large membership and considerble interest is manifested in the work and aims of the order.

A committee was subsequently appointed to procure a charter, draw up by-laws, &c.

German.

The Alexandria German Club last night at McBurney's Hall gave another of the series of pretty and popular dances which have been held during the season. The german was led by Judge L. C. Barley with Miss Elizabeth Fair, of Warrenton, who introduced several new figures. The dance was well attended and besides the Alexandrians many from Washington and elsewhere were present.

How Gowan's Pneumonia Cure Cures Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Pneumonia—All of them Ills that Come from Colds—And the Reasons Why

When you have a cough or a pain in the chest, your cold is settling there—and this is very dangerous. Most of the deaths in winter begin just this way.

Wherever your cold is centered, there you must apply the remedy. Either on your chest or throat. Now when you take an internal remedy it has to pass through the stomach. Often it wrecks your digestion and never gets to your lungs at all.

Gowan's Pneumonia Cure is external. It penetrates—goes right in to the seat of the trouble, and soothes at once the irritated lungs or throat. It casts out the germs of cold, consumption, pneumonia—all evil germs. That is, it makes the lungs strong to cast these germs out.

READ THESE TWO LETTERS

"I will spare no pains to call the attention of my friends to this valuable medicine.
"Mrs. J. E. Gill, Superintendent Male Orphan Asylum, Richmond, Va."

"I have used Gowan's Pneumonia Cure, and I think it is the best medicine in the world. I feel sure it saved my mother's life last fall.
"P. O. Lear, with Lilpfert-Scales Co., Winston-Salem, N. C."

Gowan's is powerful, but also harmless. It is an absolute safeguard against croup. Every mother should keep a bottle in the house. Cure your cold, cough, chest pains—to-day. Immediate relief—sure cure in Gowan's. Large bottle, $1.00; croup size, 25 cents. Sent by mail, if desired.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 27 1906.

Ask for Troops.

Last night Mayor J. H. Billock and Chief of Police Leo Logar, of Monongahela., Pa.., sent letters to Gov. Penn packer and Capt. John C. Groome, of Philadelphia, asking that Troop A, of the State constabulary, be sent to Washington county to assist in the capture of the anarchists, and that the other three troops be kept in readiness to respond if needed. The lawless element appears to have at last realized that they have but one officer, Leo Logan, against them, and they are getting quite bold, though last night they went over the line into Fayette county to hold a big meeting. A call was sent from Monongahela last night by Mayor Billock, asking that the leading officials of Washington, Westmoreland, Armstrong, and Allegheny counties meet within the next thirty-six hours to devise ways and means of getting rid of the dangerous class of foreigners now about there. A big meeting has been arranged for tonight by the "reds," and Chief Logan says he will raid it if it costs him his life. Forty Italians left Monongahela yesterday, saying they were returning to their homes in Italy.

Alleged Poisoning.

W. Cleare Dickinson, twenty-eight years of age, is in jail at Bamberg, S. C. charged by the coroner's jury with responsibility of the death of D. F. Reid by arsenic poisoning January 13. Reid, a young farmer and a widower, that day complained of illness, and said that he believed he had been poisoned. He died a few minutes later. The coroner's jury had the body examined yesterday. Arsenic was found in quantity more than sufficient to kill a man. Eliza Bunch testified that Reid came to her house January 13. While he was there, Cleare Dickinson came in, and taking a bottle of whisky from his pocket, gave Reid a drink, but took none himself. Later in the evening he returned and said that he "reckoned he had gotten rid of Reid." She said that about two weeks before, Dickinson had told her that he would kill Reid if he did not desist from his attentions to her. Reid was a prosperous farmer, and Dickinson is a brother of the Mayor of Bamberg.

From this terrible affliction I was relieved by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful."
